

Colour Graphing

1. Grab a large handful or two of coloured items. You could use fruitloops, buttons, coloured paperclips, pom poms, lego, etc.
2. Sort the objects into colour piles. Count each pile and colour the boxes on the graph so illustrate how many of each you have.
3. Answer the questions at the bottom.

| | | | | | | |
|----|-----|--------|--------|-------|------|--------|
| 15 | | | | | | |
| 14 | | | | | | |
| 13 | | | | | | |
| 12 | | | | | | |
| 11 | | | | | | |
| 10 | | | | | | |
| 9 | | | | | | |
| 8 | | | | | | |
| 7 | | | | | | |
| 6 | | | | | | |
| 5 | | | | | | |
| 4 | | | | | | |
| 3 | | | | | | |
| 2 | | | | | | |
| 1 | | | | | | |
| | Red | Orange | Yellow | Green | Blue | Purple |

Which colour had the most? _____

Which colour had the least? _____

Choose any two colours and add them together- write a number sentence and answer it. (eg- $5+2=7$)
